Tom Anderson Draws Lead In Radio Play

Tom Anderson, Havre, has been assigned the lead role in "Mind in the Shadow," according to Frank Rutherford, Helena, president of the Radio Guild.

Anderson will play the part of Chuck, a young CBS executive who is given an assignment by his boss to find out about conditions of mental health in this country.

Bill, Chuck's boss, will be played by Fred Barclay, Missoula. Chuck is reluctant to take the assignment because his wife, Lucy, played by Alice Ann Buls, Missoula, is a mental case; Chuck feels that the less he knows about mental disorders, the better off he will be.

Surprise Character

Dr. Thomas, who is the surprise character in the show, according to Rutherford, will be portrayed by Ross Hagen, Lindsay.

The script for "Mind in the Shadow" is being furnished by station KGVO. Marion Dixon, station manager, said the show was first aired over CBS in February, 1949. Eddie Albert played the lead in the show that was so successful it was aired a second time the same month.

Technicians and Cast

Announcer for the show will be Berlyn Hedin, Billings. Joyce Siperly, Great Falls, is director and Frank Rutherford, Helena, is technical director. Jim Maurer, Libby, is assistant producer.

The cast includes Robert Helming, Wisdom; Roxanna Warren, Missoula; Patricia Fraher, Moab, S. D.; Art Lundell, Milwaukee, Wis.; Eleanor Beacom, Missoula; Pat McDonald, Missoula.

Fred Colbern, West Yellowstone; Jim Browne, Bigfork; Tom Ellis, Ronan; Gerald Navratil, Missoula; Camille Olson, Arlington, Va.; and Les Wakefield, Clallam Bay, Wash.

Eligibility requirements are as follows:

1. American citizenship.

Ballet Star . . .

Frederic Franklin will appear with the Ballet Russe de Monte Carlo in the Student Union auditorium Nov. 7 under the Community Concert series.

Concert Admission Fixed for Faculty

Faculty members will not be admitted free to the Community Concert series this year as the former practice has been, according to Monroe DeJarnette, Missoula, outside entertainment committee chairman.

This decision was reached at a meeting of the MSU student committee with the downtown concert committee Thursday. Faculty members must hold regular downtown season tickets for admittance, according to the motion passed.

Student season tickets will not go on sale until Thursday, DeJarnette said, and students must have their activity cards with them when they make their purchases. The season tickets will sell for $2.

Four Music Students To Appear in Recital

Four students of the School of Music will appear in a recital today at 3 p.m. in the Main hall auditorium.

Scheduled to present piano selections are Dick Fletcher, Billings, "Meditation" by Porter; Johnny Marvin, Missoula, Sonata No. 1 by Handel; and Gilbert Leiber, Miles City, "Berceuse" by Chopin.

Tibet Falling Under Red China Attack

New Delhi, Oct. 30.—(UP)—The roof is caving in on the "Land on Top of the World."

The Chinese Communist army has pushed across the borders of remote Tibet. The Indian government says spearheads of a 100,000-man Red army are driving into the heart of the mountain nation. They're advancing against light resistance and latest reports put Red columns within 200 miles of Lhasa, capital of the Shangri-La state. Observers say the Red invaders probably could reach Lhasa in 10 days.

A spokesman for the Delhi government said the Communists are accompanying their invasion with a propaganda program. Tibetan towns on the invasion route are being showered with leaflets urging the population to revolt against the Dalai Lama's regime. And in Lhasa, the 15-year-old Dalai Lama is reported to have packed his bags, ready to flee to India.

BONNER APPOINTS ACTING SECRETARY

Helena, Oct. 30.—(UP)—Dorothy Green of Helena was named acting executive secretary of the University of Montana system today until the state board of education appoints a successor to Chancellor George A. Selke.

Selke, who resigned earlier this month, left today on a month vacation and upon his return will depart for his new job with the state department in Germany.

Miss Green, a veteran employee of the chancellor's office, was named to the acting post by Governor Bonner at a meeting of the state board of examiners. Bonner made the appointment as chairman of the state board of education.

J-School Sponsors Best News Photo Display This Week

Students may view the best in 1949's news photography this week in the Copper room of the Student Union. Fifty "News Pictures of the Year" went on display yesterday.

The MSU journalism school is sponsoring the sixth annual exhibit of prize-winning news photographs. The show is under the auspices of the University of Missouri journalism school and Encyclopedia Britannica.

Some of the spot news and feature shots will be familiar to students who have seen them before in newspapers and national publications.

This traveling exhibit has been shown by newspapers and colleges throughout the nation in the last year and a half. From here it will go to the University of Washington next month.

AEC NOT YET CERTAIN H-BOMB CAN BE MADE

Washington, Oct. 30.—(UP)—Chairman Gordon Dean said the Atomic Energy commission has not yet produced a hydrogen bomb, and is not certain whether it can.

Dean also disclosed that the United States has a pretty good idea where Russia stands in atomic development, and is confident we are still well ahead of the Soviet Union.

He also said that there is little danger man might destroy himself by exploding enough atomic weapons to make the earth uninhabitable.

South Koreans Retreat; Chinese Reds Join Battle

Tokyo, Oct. 30.—(UP)—The South Korean lightning advance northward has received a surprise setback.

For the first time since the middle of September, the Republic of Korea troops have been forced to withdraw. They pulled back two-and-one-half miles during a vicious Communist attack not far northwest of Hamhung.

Not since the early days of the war when the Reds were having their own way have the South Koreans run into such stiff opposition. United Press correspondent William Chapman reported that mortar shells and high velocity artillery fire threw mountains of snow and dirt over South Korean lines.

South Korean officers called for air support, but couldn't get it because of overcast skies. However, the United States Tenth corps headquarters said reinforcements, probably including units of the United States Marine First division, are being rushed to meet the growing threat to Hamhung.

The sudden turn of events came as a United States military spokesman officially confirmed that Chinese Communist troops are fighting in Korea. The spokesman said a Chinese Communist regiment is in combat south of the Chosin reservoir. Newsman Chapman said 16 soldiers of a Red China engineer regiment were captured yesterday.

COVERED WAGON WRECK INJURES MONTANA WOMAN

Jamestown, N. D., Oct. 30.—(UP)—Sixty-year-old Jesse Lacinah, travelling from Montana to Minnesota by covered wagon, was injured when her team of horses bolted and ran into a truck at Jamestown. She was hospitalized but her condition was described as not serious. Attendants think she may be released Tuesday. But last night was the first in eight weeks that she had spent under anything but the canvas that covers her wagon. Her destination is Lakefield, Minn., where she will live with a sister. She had ranched at Big Sandy, Mont., for 25 years before selling the ranch.

Sigma Nus to Entertain 1,000 Grade Schoolers

The Sigma Nus will again play hosts to an estimated crowd of over 1,000 grade school children at their fifth annual Halloween party at 7:30 Tuesday night at the chapter house, 1006 Gerald.

Special invitations have been sent out to all grade schools in the Missoula area. Although the members of Sigma Nu will do their best to entertain the throng of trick and treaters, two hostesses from each sorority house have been invited to help in the Herculean task.

Pumpkin Entrance

The entire house will be decorated in a strict Halloween atmosphere under the direction of Danny Lambros, Missoula. The front entrance to the house is to be decorated with a huge jack-o-lantern and admittance to the party general as far as the Russians are concerned if his term is extended.

The Russians said they won't recognize Lie. His job ends Feb. 2, but the United States and other countries want him to succeed himself.

The Russians were defeated in their attempt to shelve the issue. The security council turned down the Soviet proposal that the assembly refuse to take up the issue without a formal recommendation from the 11-nation council.

Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Vishinsky said Russia will not do business with Trygve Lie if he is continued in office as United Nations secretary general. But Vishinsky assured a news conference late this afternoon that the Soviet Union would not pull out of the world organization.

GUSTAV VI TAKES OATH, BELLS TOLL FOR FATHER

Stockholm, Oct. 30.—(UP)—While church bells still tolled for their beloved Gustav V, who died early yesterday, thousands of Swedes gathered to hear his son, Prince Gustav Adolf, take the oath as the new monarch.

The new king, who will be 67 Nov. 11, took the oath in a solemn ceremony in the state hall of the royal castle. Following his proclamation as King Gustav VI, a great cheer split the air. Seconds later hundreds of thousands of his subjects took up the cry outside the castle.

Skiers to Elect Chief Tonight

Election of a new president and vice-president will be first in order of business at the Ski club's initial meeting of the year at 7:30 tonight in the Eloise Knowles room, Shirley McKown, Seattle, acting president, said yesterday.

Failure of Pat Hayes, Potomac, last year's Ski club president, and Louis Penwell, Billings, vice-president, to return to school is the reason for the election, she added.

Members will discuss possible sites for their annual week-end ski trip, Miss McKown said.

RICKEY GIVES PIRATES FIRST CONSIDERATION

St. Louis, Oct. 30.—(UP)—Former Brooklyn Dodger President Branch Rickey said he will give the Pittsburgh Pirates first consideration if he takes another baseball job. After passing through the front of the jack-o-lantern the kids will travel through a long dark tunnel decorated in black crepe paper, complete with weird ghosts floating through the air.

Apple bobbing, cider, doughnuts, and Halloween candy of all kinds are to be on hand for the kids to enjoy. Another part of the entertainment planned is a spook tunnel which will run the entire length of the upstairs. The tunnel will

Cheap at Twice
The Price

Today is kickoff day for the sale of tickets for the 1950-51 Community Concert series with the first attraction, the Ballet Russe de Monte Carlo, just one week off. One thousand four hundred student seats have been reserved for each of the four concert presentations this year.

ASMSU has kicked through with $4,200 in order to offer these seats to students at the fantastically low season-ticket price of $2. Season tickets for these same performances cost several times this nominal sum if purchased downtown.

We hope the campus citizenry will take this opportunity to get in on the ground floor, and cheap, for one of the outstandingly valuable extracurricular offerings at MSU.

Although we profess genuine affection for dear old Montana, there is one point at which MSU is not quite so fortunate as many other institutions of mental endeavor. Missoula and the campus are too distant from large centers of population to be able to draw upon the cultural facilities that are offered in major cities.

Other colleges are in a position to call upon artists and orchestras in the cities near or in which they are located. Montana is unable to do this. The Community Concerts are almost our sole opportunity of witnessing top-quality artists on the campus.

And they are top quality. Groups like the Ballet Russe, one of the foremost dance companies in the world, and the Wagner opera company, which appeared last year, are right out of the top drawer. So are individuals like Nan Merriman of the Metropolitan opera and Whitmore and Lowe, the piano duo. These performers draw large crowds at top prices when they appear in large cities. Students may take in the entire series for only $2.

Ticket sales will continue through this week. The purchase of a season card is relatively painless, fantastically cheap, and offers rewards far in excess of the $2 fee. Try it.—D.G.

The Frosh Speak

By DAVE LEUTHOLD
AND TOM LINDEMAN

Now that we know who our class officers are, it is time to consider what they can do with their positions.

During the campaign, a number of the candidates stated that they wanted to make their office more than an honor. They stated that they wanted to work.

There are several ideas which have been suggested for these newly elected officers. The most pressing problem is that of cleaning up the campus after one of the most hectic freshman campaigns in years.

There is a lot of cleaning up to be done. One idea advanced is having each candidate take down his own publicity, with class officers checking to see that this is done.

This should include not only tearing down posters, but taking off the tape or nails with which they were put up, washing chalk and whitewash off sidewalks, and cleaning up all other places where campaign material has been posted, including university bulletin boards. Places where posters have been removed already should be checked to see that the nails and tape have been completely removed with them.

This would be an ideal way for our freshman officers to demonstrate that their campaign promises hold water now that elections are past.

Musician Speaks
At Friday Convo;
Painter Next

"Composing is a Sunday afternoon hobby," Peggy Glanville-Hicks declared in convocation Friday morning.

Speaking to about two hundred and fifty students gathered in the Student Union auditorium, Miss Hicks said American composers must do their wage-earning composing during the week and their classical writing on week ends.

Miss Hicks was the first speaker in the lecture series entitled "The Arts in Our Industrial World," presented by the University of Minnesota concert and lecture service. The lecturer divided the music profession into three major groups: professional, those who play for pay; art musicians, composers and conductors, trades people; and those in recording work.

Miss Hicks, who at the age of 11 was rehearsing chorus ensembles for opera productions, is the music critic for the New York Herald Tribune as well as an author and composer.

The second member of the Minnesota lecturers will be Arnold Blanch, painter and art teacher, who will speak Friday at convocation.

Grizzlies Overwhelmed By Beavers on Muddy Field

Montana lost a hard-fought football game Saturday to Oregon State college on flooded Bell field at Corvallis. The final score was 20-0.

The Grizzlies played to the best of their ability, but were overwhelmed by the determined and somewhat superior play of the Beavers.

Rain had been falling all week prior to the game, and at game time there was about an inch of water all over the field. The sidelines, where the teams sat, were like pig-pens.

Montana's famed passing game was stymied, and because the Beavers were able to move their secondary up close to the line of scrimmage, the Grizzlies were unable to get going on the ground.

Oregon State, running from a single-wing most of the time, was able to plow for long gains through the Grizzly line, and to pick up good yardage around the Montana ends.

At times the Grizzlies used an eight-man line, but were unable to stem the tide of the tremendously powerful Beaver running attack.

Montana fumbled four times, and was able to recover only one of them. Two of the fumbles led to scores for the Beavers.

On one occasion the Grizzlies penetrated to the OSC 11-yard line, but fumbled the ball and lost it to Oregon State.

Ray Bauer, ace Grizzly passer, was injured in the second quarter and was sidelined for the remainder of the game.

Grizzly quarterback Tommy Kingsford played a fine game before he was removed as a result of a rib injury in the fourth quarter.

Both are expected to be all set for the College of Puget Sound game Saturday night.

Gene Carlson, Grizzly fullback, was the outstanding runner for Montana, and was almost away for a touchdown on a play in the third quarter.

Stellar defensive play was shown by "Moose" Miller, Capt. Ken Campbell, Gordon Stewart, Dick Moomaw, and halfbacks Sherbeck and Murphy.

Left halfback Gene Taft was the outstanding back for the Beavers. He sliced off tackle repeatedly for sizeable gains and scored two of the State touchdowns. Fullback Sam Baker added the other.

Statistics:

	MSU	OSC
First downs	8	16
Rushing yardage	41	292
Passing yardage	25	32
Passes attempted	12	8
Passes completed	4	2
Passes intercepted	1	1
Punts	9	3
Punting average	35	41
Fumbles lost	3	1
Yards penalized	0	65

Thoughts While Rolling

Good to see the ever-faithful fans, replete with cheerleaders and band, at the depot to give the Grizzlies a send-off.

Most of the squad take textbooks on these trips and do some serious studying.

Ray Bauer, Great Falls, has a moth-eaten old sport jacket he hopes will be accepted by some museum for future generations to gloat over. No one remembers when he got it.

Andy Kafentzis, who some of the boys allege is an exchange student, really isn't; he is just one of the local boys making good.

Bo Laird, Miles City, is an inveterate reader of western stories.

Naze Rhinehart, Grizzly trainer, and Bauer always stage a grudge battle in "Hearts" as we are traveling, but usually sit together on the bus going to the game.

Hap, erstwhile bus driver, met us in Portland with a Grayline sight-seeing bus.

Our bus broke down half-way between Portland and Corvallis, conveniently near a place called the Gateway Inn.

During the hour-and-a-half lay-over there, Gerlinger and Vucurovich won the shuffleboard championship of the squad.

At the Hotel Benton in Corvallis we were met by a bevy of Beaverettes, who were surprised not to see us in cowboy boots and 10-gallon hats.

They had decorated the hotel lobby with school color streamers, and placed oranges labeled OSC at each one of our plates in the dining room.

As for the game, we can't blame anyone for the weather. Maybe a dry field would have made a difference—who knows?

There was a "squaw squeeze" (dance) after dinner, but the Grizzlies were all thinking of their own little old gals back in the valley. Besides, they had to take the bus at 6 or miss train connections at Portland.

Wait Broulette, Northern Pacific representative who makes the trips with us, sees to it that our game gear is well taken care of. It is a pleasure to have him along.

TICKETS FOR FINAL SPARTAN GAME ON SALE

Tickets for the Missoula high-Gonzaga football game Friday night are on sale at the Student Union business office.

WOMEN'S M CLUB MEETS

The Women's M club will have a dinner meeting this afternoon at 5:45 in the Student Union, according to Marjorie Anderson, Kalispell, M club president.

Cubs Dump Kittens 7-6 In Grid Tilt

Bob Hudson, Cub end, took a 30-yard pass from quarterback Dick Heath and end Eddie Anderson kicked the extra point to give the Grizzly Cubs a 7-6 victory over MSC's Bobkittens last Friday in Bozeman.

The Cub touchdown came in the fourth quarter when the MSU frosh were trailing, 0-6. The Bobkittens scored in the second quarter when one of Anderson's punts was blocked. The ball rolled out of bounds on the Cub 3-yard line and Tom Parac, Kitten quarterback, went around end to score. The aggressive Cub line blocked the try for extra point.

The Cubs, using the platoon system effectively, had the Kittens worn down by the end of the game.

A 15-yard penalty ruined another Cub scoring opportunity after the fourth period TD when they recovered a fumble on the Kitten 21-yard line.

Paul Weskamp ran hard from the fullback spot and Dick Heath's passing was brilliant. On the line, guards Jim Burke and Anderson were standouts.

The Cubs' well-balanced attack piled up 11 first downs against nine for the Kittens. Coach Eddie Chinske's seven-man line diamond defense helped stop the Kittens.

The Cubs were penalized 95 yards, the Kittens 51 yards.

Doris Peterson, Missoula, is the only woman forestry major.

North No. 2 Wins

North No. 2 defeated North No. 3, 36 to 16, in women's volleyball Friday. New No. 2 won over Kappa Alpha Theta, 30 to 22, and North No. 4 forfeited to North No. 1.

The Independents edged Kappa Alpha Theta, 22 to 21, in Saturday's game. Kappa Kappa Gamma defeated Alpha Chi Omega 34 to 24, and the Tri-Delts downed North No. 2, 37 to 12.

The volleyball tournament starts this week, and the round robin will conclude this afternoon with the following games:

Theta Chi Undeclared In Intramural Touchball

Theta Chi remained in the ranks of the undeclared touch football teams by edging Newman club, 2 to 0, in a California playoff Friday in the Clover bowl.

Doug Reiner, Los Angeles, passed his club to victory in the playoff when he launched an aerial to Rodney Jones, Butte, giving Theta Chi the advantage in yardage gained.

In games scheduled yesterday there were two forfeits and a postponement.

Theta Chi won their fourth straight victory which resulted from an Alpha Tau forfeit. Failure to field a complete team gave Sigma Phi Epsilon a forfeit to win over South hall. The Jumbo hall game with Phi Sigma Kappa was postponed.

High scorers for League A in touch football are Don Clark, Sigma Chi, Billings, with 18 points,
